

Luiss Alumni Scholarships for Refugees UNICORE 4.0

Since 2019 Luiss University enriched its Global Engagement Strategy promoting the human capital of young refugees and offering the possibility to study in Luiss University for refugees coming from African countries.

Luiss Alumni Association and Luiss are offering 2 scholarships for the 2022/2023 academic year for master's degree programs taught in English, open to refugee students – UNHCR registered – in Niger, Nigeria and Cameroon.

The program envisages the award of a full-ride scholarship to two admitted students, covering tuition fees and the total cost of bed and board in Rome during the 2 academic years. The scholarships will be confirmed for the following academic year on condition that the students, by 31 July of every year, has earned at least 70% of the education credits required under his/her first-year study plan. Should the selected student not comply with the above-mentioned requirements, he/she will be responsible for the payment of the remaining tuition fee payments for the second a.y. 2023/2024 and for living expenses.

To finalize the application candidates must fill out the application form online by April 29, 2022. In order to fill in the application form, the candidate will be required to register to the platform first, and then go back to the application form.

The scholarship is open to refugee students who:

- Are residing in Niger, Nigeria or Cameroon and have been recognized refugee status in these countries by UNHCR or by National authorities
- are graduated (Bachelor Degree) in Cameroon or in Niger or in Nigeria or in another country not earlier than 2019
- are going to graduate (Bachelor Degree) by 25 November 2022 in Cameroon or in Niger or in Nigeria or in another country
- have a knowledge of the English language of at least B2
- Hold a qualification valid for admission to the chosen Second Cycle Degree Programme;
- Meet the specific admission requirements of the Second cycle degree programme;
- Have never before been enrolled in a degree program at any of the Partner Universities.

Application Procedure

When filling in the application form, students will have to indicate their personal information, their University information and upload all the required documents including the UNHCR certificate which will have to be uploaded in the ID section. After filling in their background information, students will be required to select an admission route, choosing between "International Selection" and "Orientation Workshop". Students applying through the UNICORE 4.0 project will have to select "International Selection" and indicate the project in the dedicated drop-down menu that will appear before selecting the degree course they wish to compete for.

Please note that candidates applying through UNICORE 4.0 failing to indicate so in the admission form won't be taken into account for the purpose of evaluation for the scholarship award.

Documents required to submit the application:

- certificate showing the studies completed to date (updated transcript of records or, if not available, provisional transcript) and associated grades;
- scanned copy of their Ration Card Number of their Proof of Registration, to attach under the "ID" section;
- scanned copy of the Refugee Identity card issued by National authorities or by UNHCR;
- details of a sponsoring professor, who may be contacted by the admissions commission;
- certificate of knowledge of the English language (at least level B2);
- other optional certification (for example, language proficiency, GMAT or GRE).

Application forms lacking the above-mentioned documentation will be considered incomplete and won't be considered for evaluation by the Admission Board. Multiple applications from the same candidate will not be considered, with all applications received after the first one being discarded.

Admission Criteria

The eligible candidacies will be examined by the Admissions Board, made up of the Deputy Rector for Internationalization and the Head of the chosen Degree Course, which – at its absolute discretion – will draw up a ranking taking into account the following criteria:

- academic background (preference will be accorded to candidates with a GPA of – at least – 3 out of 4), consistency of one's previous studies with the chosen master's degree programs and school record;
- the academic year in which the eligible degree was awarded;
- the language level declared;
- GMAT/GRE scores (if any).

The Admission Board will reach out to shortlisted candidates, selected discretionally by the Admission Board on the basis of the above-mentioned criteria, for online interviews held in in English.

The results will be communicated by email to the selected students, by June 10, 2022.

The deadline for the finalization of the enrollment is November 25, 2022.

Should selected student wish to renounce or withdraw from the programme, he/she may present a written formal renouncement/withdrawal before June 20, 2022.

In these circumstances, the Admission Board will consider the following shortlisted candidate, who must confirm his/her acceptance before June 30, 2022.
