Study in Rome and in London

---

LUISS Guido Carli and Queen Mary University of London have worked together since 2020, so that you can study in Rome and London, and receive degrees from both institutions.

Why study at Queen Mary?

Founded in 1785, Queen Mary is a leading research-focused university. Our home is in London, but our students and staff collaborate, study and live internationally. Our global network of research and teaching partnerships and our diverse and international students and staff make us one of the world's most international universities. With over 32,000 students from over 170 countries, Queen Mary is a truly global university.

Facts and stats

- Ranked 16th in the UK and 124th in the world (2023 Times Higher Education University Rankings).
- Study in the best student city in the world (2024 QS World University Rankings).
- Students from LUISS applying through the partnership route will receive a 10% partnership scholarship on tuition fees.
- Stimulating, high-quality learning experience.
- Recognised as the most inclusive Russell Group university.

Campus life

Queen Mary is a campus-based university, combining access to central London with the ease of having all student services in one main location. Accommodation is available both on the Mile End campus in East London, where most of our students are based, and in the local area.

Employability

Queen Mary graduates are highly sought after by employers and have some of the highest starting salaries of any UK university. Our careers office provides careers appointments, opportunities to meet employers and access to a live database of work experience opportunities and job vacancies.

Study in London

London is the cultural, artistic, and economic centre of the UK. And East London, where our largest campus lives, is one of the most dynamic parts of the city. Studying here gives you the chance to explore London's amazing sights, as well as make the most of the many opportunities to get ahead when it comes to your career, in a location close to some of the world's leading employers.

Partnership details

4+1: Students who are following the single-cycle Master's degree in Law can apply to study a masters at Queen Mary

Open to students who are enrolled in the fourth year of the Single Cycle Law Degree (5 year integrated bachelors-masters). Applicants should have completed 180 ECTS (360 Queen Mary Credits) at LUISS and have an average grade of 100 out of 110. Students can apply for a masters programme in Queen Mary's School of Law, Centre for Commercial Law Studies.

English language requirements

All programmes require an overall IELTS score of 7.0 including 7.0 in Writing, and 5.5 in Reading, Listening and Speaking. More information is available online: qmul.ac.uk/international-students/englishlanguagerequirements.

Pre-sessional English

If you do not meet the English language requirements for direct entry onto the programme, you can take a pre-sessional English language course with us before your programme starts. You can apply via the admissions team and you will then be given an unconditional offer for the English language course.

Finances

Tuition fees for LUISS students

Students from LUISS applying through the partnership route will receive a 10% partnership scholarship on their tuition fees. Tuition fees are listed on the programme pages of our website. There may be other scholarships available depending on the programme, but it is not possible to combine with the 10% partnership scholarship.

Living in London

The total cost of life in London (including housing, food and travel) will be roughly £1,334 per month. Housing on campus is around £181 to £320 per week.

Work in the UK after you graduate

The Graduate Immigration Route enables students to work in the UK for two years after graduating from Queen Mary.

The experience of studying at Queen Mary has given me the best that one may expect from studying in a worldrenowned university in London: the highly qualified teaching staff provide an engaging learning experience, that is oriented on analysing and resolving practical issues, in order to prepare students for their legal career. The very diverse student body offers plenty of opportunities for networking, that allow you to come into contact with people of all backgrounds, both cultural and legal.

Applying to Queen Mary

1 Complete your application by Friday 31 May 2024
qmul.ac.uk/international/partnerships/application

Create your log-in details, and upload the following documents:

- A scan of your passport
- One academic reference
- Your most recent transcript(s) and bachelor degree certificate
- Evidence of English language such as IELTS (or other accepted English language test)

(We don't need a Personal Statement or CV but a school may ask for this at a later stage).

2 Receive your conditional offer

If you don't meet all the entry requirements straight away, you will receive a conditional offer from our admissions team, and you will be invited to accept your offer.

3 Apply for housing

After you accept your offer, you will be directed to apply for your housing. You will receive an email from our housing services team.

4 Receive your unconditional offer

Email your updated documents (as outlined in your conditional offer) such as final transcript or English language results as soon as you have them. As long as you meet the requirements of your conditional offer, you will be given an unconditional offer.

5 Apply for your CAS number

Information about applying for your CAS (Confirmation of Acceptance for Study) will be included in your unconditional offer. You must include details of your CAS number in your visa application.

6 Apply for your visa

The visa application process can be complicated. Luckily we have lots of advice available through the Queen Mary Advice and Counselling Service: welfare.qmul.ac.uk/international. Make sure you apply as soon as possible!

7 Get excited and prepare for your arrival

We will send you lots of information by email, so please make sure you read it all thoroughly. Everything you need to know before you get here is detailed online: qmul.ac.uk/prearrival.
